IMPORTANCE OF TEXTBOOKS

Learning cannot take place in a vacuum. We need to direct our learners to specific learning goals and see that these goals are achieved. Textbooks help teachers and learners in this regard textbooks play a vital role in the teaching-learning process.

- They provide the basic framework within which much of the classroom activities occur
- They also give every child the best possible opportunities for learning.
- Textbooks assist managing a lesson.
- They save time, give direction to lessons, guide discussion, facilitate in giving homework, making teaching 'Easier, better organized, more convenient,
- And most of all, it provides confidence and security.

Please take note of the following:

1. The Subject teacher defines the textbook to be used by the learners.
2. All learners in a particular subject MUST have the textbook chosen by the subject teacher.
3. Textbooks are copyrighted therefore no photocopy will be made for learners.
4. No learner will be allowed to attend lessons without textbook
5. Parent are therefore advised to provide their children with the prescribed textbooks. NB: scissors are not part of the stationery, therefore are not allowed in school.
